

SHAFTER STRIKES BACK AT SAMPSON

CHARGES SIX; CAPTURED AT LAST

Files a Scorching Answer to the Rear Admiral's Reports.

ALGER SUPPRESSES IT.

Secretary of War Finds It Necessary to Edit the Sharp Document.

Washington, Dec. 30.—Something sensational is promised from General Shafter, who is highly incensed over the statements made by Admiral Sampson in regard to the joint naval and military operations at Santiago.

The Navy Department several weeks ago gave out many reports submitted to Secretary Long by Admiral Sampson. They dealt fully with the question of the relations between the army and navy and contained a number of assertions to which General Shafter has taken exception. He has been prevented by his regular duties and social engagements from making a report which offers an explanation of his attitude toward the navy, but he has completed this statement now and has sent it to Secretary Alger.

His desire is that it shall be given out to the newspapers, but it is couched in such strong terms and is so manifestly of a personal nature that it will probably be revised before it is made public. At any rate it will be submitted to Secretary Long in view of the fact that Admiral Sampson's view and in his annual report made a significant allusion to General Shafter's attitude toward the navy.

There is much interest taken in the Shafter statement, which denies all of Admiral Sampson's assertions and supports the denial with affidavits. It is charged by General Shafter that Admiral Sampson failed to carry out his part of the programme as agreed upon at a conference attended by Shafter, Sampson, Garcia and their respective aides.

Colonel Miles, who was General Shafter's aide, makes an affidavit as to the nature and result of the conference, and asserts that Lieutenant Stanton, who was Sampson's aide on that occasion, received a copy of the programme agreed upon by the three commanding officers.

QUEER CLAIM FOR PENSION.

Applicant Not a Soldier, but Was Hurt While Nursing His Soldier Brother.

Portland, Ore., Dec. 30.—Sillas Luttrell, of Walowa County, Oregon, was arraigned in the United States Circuit Court to-day on a charge of fraudulently endeavoring to obtain a pension. He was committed to a default of $2,000.

He made application to the United States Commissioner of Pensions under the name of John Luttrell, who was sergeant in the Ninety-third Indiana Regiment during the rebellion. Luttrell does not deny his guilt, but says that during the war his brother was taken sick at Guntown and he went to nurse him. The soldier's revolver accidentally exploded, injuring his eyesight.

STOKER MUTINIED AT SEA.

MIDDLETON LIKED TO WORK SO HE MUTINIED AND TERRORIZED THE WHOLE CREW.

Deep wrinkles lined the brow of Captain Proggart, of the British steamer Knight Bachelor, when that vessel reached New York yesterday from London, after a voyage of nineteen days. Stormy weather throughout the trip and a mutinous stoker in the fire room imbued with a deep-seated desire to slay Second Engineer Benjamin Henry, had caused the skipper many weary hours. He was afraid at one time that the entire company of stokers, sixteen in number, would mutiny.

Robert Middleton, the would-be homicide, was manacled and locked up in the forward deckhouse when the Knight Bachelor arrived, and he was very penitent. He had been disappointed in discovering that his mates in the fire room possessed a wholesome respect for English law.

The stokers were engaged in London, just before the steamship left that port on Dec. 11. Benjamin Henry, the second engineer, was placed in charge of them. Middleton took a decided dislike to him. The Captain says, Middleton believed that he was a born leaver. On the Knight Bachelor he tried hard to convince his mates that Capt. of Dunham, Who Slaughtered a Family, Gets $11,000.

FUGITIVE FOR TWO YEARS.

Escaped Manhunters in the Mountains of California to Become a Cuban Soldier.

Burlington, Iowa, Dec. 30.—James C. Dunham, who butchered six persons and was hunted for weeks in the mountains of San Jose, Cal., has just been captured here. His crime was committed two years ago. In the interval he is said to have fought in the Cuban army.

There was a price of $11,000 on Dunham's head, so his captor has earned what is to him a handsome fortune. It is one of the biggest prizes ever given for the arrest of a criminal, which is only fitting, seeing that Dunham's crime was one of the most horrible of modern times.

What Dunham did was to slaughter, by axe and rifle and pistol, all the occupants of a lonely ranch, with one exception. One of his victims—the first—was his wife. He spared only his baby, which, by the murder of its grandmother, became heir to a fortune of $200,000.

It was the ranch of Colonel McGlinchey, his wife's stepfather. Miss Wells, Mrs. McGlinchey's daughter, had killed Charles Dunham, an estimable young man. In favor of his brother James, a black sheep, and James had been a nuisance to the family ever since. He learned to hate them all.

His preparations for assassination were laborious. Pistols and rifle were cleaned and loaded, and the axe was ground to a razor's edge. First he strangled his wife as she lay beside her sleeping babe, having first given her an opportunity to write a note of farewell. Then he chopped open the head of Minnie Shesler, a servant. Mrs. McGlinchey he beat to death with the axe, and then he waited till the three men, Charles McGlinchey, Dunham's stepfather, and McGlinchey under circumstances of peculiar horror, afterward described by Schable, who escaped by hiding in a hay loft.

He then turned to the three men, and took to the mountains. For many weeks he was hunted by hundreds of armed cowboys and farmers, reinforced by soldiers and peace officers from all over the West. So thorough was the search that it was impossible for him to have escaped. He was finally captured by a party of men in a remote gulch.

SEVEN DAYS WITHOUT FOOD ON AN ARCTIC ISLAND.

Little More Than Skeletons and Nearly Frozen the Party Finally Reaches Main Land.

Vancouver, B. C., Dec. 30.—Seven days on an uninhabited island, with nothing to eat but mussels and seaweed, was the experience of three Americans who were blown out to sea on a little schooner two weeks ago. They were Dr. Phillips, of New York; Robert Black and William Bridges, of Fresno, Cal.

They tried to make Skagway from Port Simpson in an eighteen-ton schooner. They encountered two hurricanes and finally drifted bodily upon a rocky dot in the ocean, known as Evans Island, almost barren and uninhabited. The boat was dashed to pieces.

The men had a few matches, and lighting pitch torches walked up and down holding the blazing knots close to their bodies to keep from freezing to death.

They signalled the mainland in the neighborhood, and finally an Indian boy ten years old approached the island in a canoe. He was seized and his canoe confiscated.

On their arrival they were nearly naked and badly frozen. The shoes being worn off their feet by the ice, the men were in a precarious condition.

Mexican Ambassador Passes Away at His Washington Home.

RESULT OF AN OPERATION.

His Health Broken by the Death of His Wife Some Months Ago.

Washington, Dec. 30.—Don Matias Romero, the Mexican Ambassador to the United States, died at the Embassy here at 4:30 o'clock this morning. On Wednesday an operation for appendicitis was performed upon the Ambassador, and the resulting shock proved greater than he could bear. While he was in the United States he was stricken with fever, and although he was soon able to return to the United States, he never fully regained his health.

The funeral services will take place at St. Matthew's Catholic Church Sunday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, when a requiem low mass will be celebrated. The body will be placed temporarily in a vault in Mr. Olney's cemetery to await the ability of Mrs. Romero to return to Mexico.
